ANSWER TO COMPLAINT ON BEHALF OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK AND P.O.
TORRES

14 Civ. 2323 (PKC)

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Defendants City of New York (“City”) and Police Officer Felix Torres (“P.O. Torres”), by their attorney, Zachary W. Carter, Corporation Counsel of the City of New York, for their answer to the plaintiffs’ complaint, respectfully allege, upon information and belief, as follows:

1. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “1” of the complaint except admit only that plaintiff purports to bring the action as stated therein.
2. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “2” of the complaint except admit only that plaintiff purports to bring the action as stated therein.
3. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “3” of the complaint, except admit only that plaintiff purports to invoke the jurisdiction of the Court as set forth therein.

4. Deny the allegations set forth in the paragraph “4” of the complaint except admit only that plaintiff purports to lay venue as stated therein.

5. State that paragraph “5” of the complaint sets forth a jury demand to which no response is required.

6. Deny knowledge and information sufficient to form a belief as to the truth of allegations set forth in paragraph “6” of the complaint.

7. Admit only that the City of New York is a municipality organized pursuant to the laws of the State of New York.

8. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “8” of the complaint except admit only that the City of New York maintains a police department, the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”) and respectfully refer the Court to the New York City Charter, the Administrative Code and other relevant provisions of law for a recitation of the relationship between defendant City and the NYPD concerning the City’s authority to maintain a police department, and its responsibilities incident thereto.

9. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “9” of the complaint except admit only P.O. Torres, Sgt, Mohamedy Patwekar, and P.O. Geidy Vicente were members of the NYPD on or about October 28, 2013.

10. State that the allegations set forth in paragraph “10” of the complaint set forth conclusions of law, rather than averments of fact, to which no responses are required.

11. Object to and deny the embedded assertions regarding “each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein” and deny the remaining allegations set forth in paragraph “11” of the complaint. Defendants further state that the allegations “while acting within the scope of their employment” set forth a conclusion of law, rather than an averment of fact, to which no response is required.

12. Object to and deny the embedded assertions regarding “each and all of the acts of the defendants alleged herein” and deny the remaining allegations set forth in paragraph “12” of the complaint. Defendants further state that the allegations “while acting in furtherance of their employment” set forth a conclusion of law, rather than an averment of fact, to which no response is required.

13. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “13” of the complaint.

14. Admit only the allegations set forth in paragraph “14” of the complaint.

15. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “15” of the complaint.

16. Object to and deny the embedded assertion of “thereafter” and deny the remaining allegations set forth in the paragraph “15” of the complaint except admit only that plaintiff Joel Soler was at the location and demanded to know why his brother was being arrested.

17. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “17” of the complaint.

18. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “18” of the complaint.

19. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “19” of the complaint.

20. Deny the allegations set forth in paragraph “20” of the complaint.
